MOTHER KILLED BY DAUGHTER

Colorado Girl, 15, Murders Parent When Interfered With In Love Affair—Woman's Body Buried In Refuse Pile on Isolated Ranch

STEAMBOAT SPRINGS, Cal. — (By Associated Press) — The story that the fifteen-year-old daughter of Frank Mudra killed her mother because the latter objected to her accepting the attentions of a ranch hand, buried the body in a refuse pile on an isolated ranch fifteen miles from Oak Creek and kept her act secret for three weeks, was conveyed to the coroner's office here today. Officials will leave tomorrow to take charge of the body.

The information was brought to Oak Creek by a neighbor of the Mudras, named Reed.

Mudra, a miner, has been working in Oak Creek this winter, leaving his wife and children on the ranch.

Yesterday, the girl, walked into Oak Creek from the ranch, after hours of toiling thru the almost impassable mountain roads, saying her mother was sick. Her father accompanied her to the farm. Inquiry developed that Mrs. Mudra had not been seen for several weeks and one of the smaller children finally told Mudra, Reed said, that the body was buried back of the stable.

The body was found with a bullet wound in the back.

The girl, according to Reed, then confessed that she shot her mother because of the latter's interference in her affair with the ranch hand.

YEGGS BLOW SAFE

Springfield Concern, in Congested District, Is Robbed

SPRINGFIELD. — (By Associated Press) — Yeggs blew the safe in the office of the Pure Oil Company here last night and made their getaway with the company's cash amounting to $180. A unique feature of the safe-blowing is the fact that it was pulled off in a congested district and despite the fact that the office is electrically lighted. To avoid detection the yeggs painted a large canvas showing a safe on it. This was painted to represent the interior of the office. Hanging this up, the burglars removed the safe to a warehouse where they blew off the doors.

ARSON ADMITTED BY YOUNG MAN

Son of Wealthy Pennsylvania Man Sentenced to Prison

UNIONTOWN, Pa. — (By Associated Press) — Albert Smith, the 19-year-old son of a wealthy real estate owner of Fairhope, Pa., today pleaded guilty in criminal court here to 13 charges of arson and was sentenced to serve not less than 42 or more than 85 years in the Western Penitentiary at Pittsburgh.

Smith was arrested several weeks ago after the entire countryside had been aroused by a series of incendiary fires which caused damages estimated at no less than three quarters of a million dollars.

It was stated by the authorities that he had made a complete confession and soon afterward that the confession had been repudiated.

Today, however, he appeared in court, and entered pleas of guilty, six of them being to charges of felonious arson.

The incendiary fires which continued over a period of three months, not only destroyed farm property and houses in a number of villages, but also valuable school buildings. Not all of the fires were credited to Smith.

BOY CONFESSES THEFT

CLEVELAND — Alfred S. Rybicki, 19, was given a preliminary hearing in police court today on an embezzlement charge following his arrest last night after police say he confessed to taking $4,000 from the Merchants' Savings and Banking Company last June, while employed as clerk.

GERMAN DEBT PUT AT 226 BILLIONS

Amount of Reparations Fixed by Allied Council

TAX ON EXPORTS IS ADDED

Customs to be Seized if Payments Are Not Made

PARIS. — (By Associated Press) — Germany would be required to pay 226,000,000,000 gold marks in forty-two annual installments under the plan submitted to the supreme allied council today by the committee charged on Thursday with the formulation of a reparations plan which would meet the divergent views of the allied leaders.

The first two installments would be two billion marks, the next three, three billion, the next three, four billion, the next three, five billion and the next thirty-one, six billion each.

In addition Germany would be required to pay a 12 per cent tax on her exports, this tax, calculated on the basis of German exports in 1918, would total a little more than 1,500,000,000 gold marks. The plan submitted would place the task of collecting the tax on the allied reparation commission.

As a guarantee against Germany defaulting on her payments, the committee recommended that such an event German customs might be seized and new or increased taxes be imposed without prejudice to any measure the allies might take of this plan proved inadequate.

Announcements early today indicated the belief that the committee's report would prove satisfactory and that it would be quickly accepted by the council.

SUSPECT IN GROVE (TY ROBBERY TAKEN

CLEVELAND. — Trent Longo, said to be wanted in Columbus for the theft of approximately $10,000 in war savings stamps, Liberty bonds and American Express checks from John Willert in a holdup of the Grove City bank, at Grove City, December 3, last, was arrested by local detectives today and turned over to Columbus authorities.

Longo was identified, Columbus officers say, by a picture in the rogues' gallery.

Cleveland police were notified and kept a watch on Longo's home here. When he appeared there this morning he was arrested.

Va. — (By Associated Press) — James Damron, former judge of the Ringo circuit court and a prominent figure among counsel for the prosecution in the trial of the 21 men charged with the killing of Albert C. Felts at Matewan, today asked for a permit to carry a pistol. The application was made to Judge Bailey, who is presiding at the trial.

Mr. Damron was on the bench when the fight occurred at Matewan last May and summoned the special grand jury which returned the indictments on which the defendants are now being tried. It was in his court that the trials were postponed from September last until this month.

112 OUT OF 1,000 PAIRS DIVORCED

Japan Leads World in Breaking Matrimonial Ties

GERMAN RATE NEXT HIGHEST

Japanese Population Cut Half in Year of 1919

TOKIO. — (By Associated Press) — The assertion is made here that Japan leads the world in proportion of divorces to marriages. Unofficial reports state that the number of divorces in 1918 were 56,741, as against 503,236 marriages, a ratio of 112.3 divorces to each 1,000 marriages.

This is compared to the German rate of 21.6 per thousand, which is said to be the highest divorce rate in Europe.

Unofficial figures indicate that Japan's rate of increase in population was cut about one-half in 1919 by influenza and high cost of living.

The estimated yearly increase of Japan's population has generally been assumed to be about 800,000. In 1918 the customary estimated census showed an increase of about 600,000, while in 1919 the increase was only 308,794.

Cleanup Crusade Against Bootleggers is Still On

TOLEDO. — (By Associated Press) — The most extensive liquor raid ever conducted in the city was still in progress today, following the arrest of sixty alleged bootleggers yesterday afternoon and evening.

It was said by the prohibition agents that the visiting of 100 places already raided had "only touched the fringe" that the cleanup would assume much larger proportions.

All but seven of the arrested persons furnished bail, a number of those being taken in custody were women. The agents also picked up several alleged drug peddlers. The entire underworld district has been searched and many well known operators arrested.

Boiler Explodes as Train Reaches Tunnel in West Virginia

Investigation to Ascertain Cause is Started

WHEELING, W. Va. — (By Associated Press) — Four Baltimore and Ohio railroad employees were killed early today when a locomotive boiler exploded near Littleton, W. Va.

The men who lost their lives are: Matt Walsh, road foreman of engines; C. J. Carpenter, engineer; P. Grogan, fireman; J. Wilfong, brakeman.

The accident occurred at Broad-tree tunnel on the Wheeling division.

Officials from here instituted an investigation to ascertain the cause. The men were riding on the big engine attached to a heavy train which was approaching the tunnel on a grade.

According to reports received here the boilers gave way without warning, reducing the engine to a mass of wreckage and killing four men.

WORKERS TO VOTE

WASHINGTON. — (By Associated Press) — Officials of the labor unions representing skilled employees of shipyards today ordered a general referendum on the proposal of the Atlantic Coast Shipbuilders' Association and the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation that wage scales be reduced 10 per cent as the initial move in a program designed to bring down production costs.

A. J. Besses, secretary of the metal trades department of the American Federation of Labor, which has been supervising the negotiations, said today that the question of whether the cut would be accepted depended entirely upon the outcome of the vote. Between 60,000 and 75,000 skilled laborers were affected, he estimated.

Are now selling in the markets BELOW their present cost of production. We have deflation, but any sane person knows that merchandise or materials can not long sell below cost of re-production.

Prices, except on a few designated articles, in which hardware and refined oils may be included, have reached a new level and will become stabilized. Shoppers are now buying cheaper than they will later even after labor has met the crisis.

The outlook for labor the country over is not serious. There is no attempt on the part of employers to slash wages. Employers are offering reduced scales in many lines, but these are found to be only twenty percent on the average. Living costs have declined far greater than twenty percent, so that wage scales this spring and summer even twenty percent lower will make living easier than at any time since 1916.

We are passing thru strenuous times. Lima and Mansfield are the only two cities in Ohio, travelling men state, which still show prosperity. Employers and employees alike should congratulate themselves and with the resumption of buying, the business world will soon be back on its feet.

Readers of this paper can safely purchase articles as advertised in a knowledge that they will never be lower. If you have waited for the bottom in anything from toothpicks to real estate, the bottom is now at your service.

ROCKFORD HI WINS SPENCERVILLE CAGE TOURNAMENT

NEW YORK NATIONALS WALLOP AMERICAN LEGION TEAM IN FAST AND ROUGH GAME LAST NIGHT AT MEMORIAL HALL—BIG CROWD

NEW YORK NATIONALS DEFEAT LEGION IN EXCITING BATTLE

BY BILL CUNNINGHAM
(Lima News Staff Correspondent)

The New York Nationals, using a weird but effective manner of passing and shooting, defeated the local American Legion quintet in a hard fought game at the Memorial Hall Friday night, 35-31.

The Nationals broke up the Legion teamwork the first half and led at the end of this period 22-7. The Legion came back strong during the second half and playing a stellar game, worked their score up but the time was too short and they lost the game by four points.

TEAMS GUARD CLOSELY

The game started with both teams guarding close and after several minutes of play in which neither team was able to score. Smyth, National, connected with the basket for the first score of the game.

With whirlwind playing, they scored two more field goals until Thomas, Legion, dumped the ball thru the hoop for the first score for the Lima five. The New Yorkers again scored and made three more field goals in rapid succession. Murphy, National, dropped the ball thru the hoop from three-fourths the length of the floor.

The Legion team work and passing was excellent but they had tough luck on shooting baskets all during the first half. The Nationals scored steadily making difficult shots.

SECOND HALF SLOW

The second half started slow, both teams using an airtight defense making it impossible to score. Baker, Legion, finally broke thru the National defense and made the first score for the Legion. Then the Legion began to play excellent ball and scored continually. Miller and Churchill both made baskets from the middle of the floor. The Legion was playing like a whirlwind when Churchill the husky guard, was knocked out. After several minutes "Chet" recovered and amid cheers of the crowd played his usual stellar game at guard.

Then the Nationals weakened their sport and the Nationals weakened they worked the score up point a point, but the Nationals getting possession of the ball the last two minutes, passed it and kept it until the final gun cracked.

MAKE 11 GOALS

Miller and Thomas put up their usual good game at forward and connected with 11 field goals. Miller got six of these with Thomas the other five. Thomas connected with three free throws with Miller getting one. The Nationals' forward forwards formed an excellent scoring machine. With perfect teamwork they managed to connect with the basket 17 times. Smyth got seven of these field goals. The game was an interesting one for the large crowd of fans who were well pleased with the game the Legion put up against the Nationals.

MULLIGAN OF '21 CHANGED BY YEARS

CHICAGO — Some surprise was expressed by baseball experts and fans when it was announced that the White Sox had purchased Eddie Mulligan from the Salt Lake club. Those experts and fans recalled the spring training trip of the Cubs five years ago and the first few weeks of the season when Mulligan was given a chance at shortstop on the north side. They remembered his failure to make good, his return to the minors, and then forgot him.

But it is not improbable that Mulligan, if given the chance, will right many of his wrongs. It was learned on reliable authority that the Mulligan of today and the Mulligan of five years ago are vastly different. Mulligan today is experienced, balanced, and steady, and the Mulligan of five years ago was about as brilliant but erratic a youngster as ever came to the majors.

TINKER PICKED HIM AS A STAR
It was in the spring of 1916 when Joe Tinker bossed the Cubs that Mulligan had his first shot at the big show. The squad was enormous, being a mixture of Cubs and Chicago Federals. There were a lot of veteran infielders, but before the boys had practiced two days at the Tampa, Fla., camp Young Mulligan was performing with the regulars at shortstop.

Growing reports of his prowess were sent back to Chicago. Tinker, himself an old-time shortstop star, declared that never in his experience had he seen such a good prospect. Not only was he setting things on fire in the field but he was hitting and running the bases with brilliancy, and displaying an aggressiveness that was most admirable.

APPLAUSE TURNED TO HOOTS

Of course when the season opened, Mulligan was on short and the host of northside fans gave him plenty of applause. But something happened. Things went wrong right from the start. He booted the ball, kicked away a few games, failed miserably as a hitter, and, instead of applauding, the fans were hooting him inside of ten days or two weeks. He went back to the minors in a hurry.

Mulligan now has spent a long time in the bushes and those who have watched him declare he has steamed down. He has all the speed and natural ability he had five years ago, and such ability properly controlled, belongs in the big league. He has performed mostly at third base and it is at that position he is likely to be tried by the Sox.

No less a judge of youngsters than Jack Doyle, old-time player, says Mulligan is a wonderfully improved athlete. Jack saw him play several games in the Coast league last summer.

SOX PROBLEM MAKES FANS RUB HEADS

CHICAGO — It's almost impossible to talk to a man five minutes these days without his asking about the prospects of the White Sox. Naturally as spring approaches and a man's mind turns to diamond thrills, he wonders just what Kid Gleason can do this coming season with a team completely wrecked last fall when eight stars were suspended and indicted. No one can answer the question at present. All one can say is that Gleason has a tough job on his hands.

Sometime ago, Owner Comiskey and Manager Gleason were convinced there would be no help coming from the other owner, of the American league and they were right. There was only one course left—to get the best possible from the minors. With that in mind, the Sox officials grabbed three infielders from the Salt Lake club, one of the strongest minor league clubs in the field last year.

A SALT LAKE INFIELD
There was a purpose in that. They will have three fellows who worked together all last season, providing all three make good. They will understand each other much better than three fellows meeting for the first time.

In Sheely, first baseman, Ernie Johnson, shortstop, and Mulligan, third baseman, there will be three fellows who were the stars of the Salt Lake outfit, and Eddie Collins ought to be a good enough second baseman to fit in with them and make quite an impressive infield quartet.

Of course, Harvey McClellan may oust either Mulligan from third or Johnson from short, for he will have to be reckoned with in the battle for positions. Sheely hit .374 last season, Johnson .337, and Mulligan .239, which is pretty good swatting in the Pacific Coast league.

J. COLLINS TO OUTFIELD
Should Sheely make good at first base, John Collins will be available for outfield service, and should be a grand fellow to hold down left field. It looks like Johnny Mostil, start at Milwaukee and then there will be Amos Strunk, Nemo Leibold, and Eddie Murphy left from last year's Sox. Ray Schalk will be back of the bat in about 150 games unless hurt, and Red Faber, Dick Kerr, and Roy Wilkinson remain of the once great pitching staff.

There are about fifteen or more aspiring recruits. If just two of the recruits come thru with ability to take a regular turn, there will be a pretty fair staff of hurlers, and likely candidates are there in McSweeney, formerly of Milwaukee, Davenport of Sioux City, and Dodge from Nashville, who did splendid work in a couple of trials last fall.

ALL ADVANCE DOPE GOOD
One can almost become enthused over the prospect from the advance reports on the youngsters. But one must remember that in order to get anywhere, this team will have to beat that great Tri-Speaker gang which won the world's championship last fall and the Yankees with Babe Ruth.

Then there are the St. Louis Browns, a sturdy crew, Washington, which looks like an improved team, and Detroit, which should go better than a season ago.

With those eight stars, now suspended and gone, the Sox couldn't beat Cleveland and New York last year, so a lot of folks think they could have if they wanted to. A fellow has to be an optimist of the highest degree to think the new Sox can turn the trick. One of the enthusiastic fans for the new team put it this way:

"Well, they'll beat somebody out in the race anyway."

JESS MAKES HIT IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK — When Jess Willard, who is here for a return battle with Jack Dempsey, was introduced from the ring at Madison Square garden Friday night he received a greater reception than when he came back from Havana after winning the title from Jack Johnson.

It is evident boxing followers are with Willard in his efforts to win back the title. As Joe Humphries in the main event the crowd set up a call for the former champ and he came so insistent Humphries had to step in the midst of his oration and request the big fellow to show himself.

For some reason Jess is more popular than when he held the title. There is no question that he will be the sentimental favorite in his coming battle.

CHICAGO MAN WINNER IN GOLF MEET

PALM BEACH, Fla. — W. B. Langford of the Glen Oak Golf club, Chicago, won the championship in the annual Lake Worth golf tournament Saturday, putting out George C. Heintzman of the Hamilton Country club, Canada, in the final round, 3 and 2.

In the second sixteen P. V. Skiff of Baltusrol defeated Sidney Maddock of Palm Beach, 7 and 6, and in the third flight the match went to twenty holes before R. Greiner was able to overcome J. P. Holmes.

LANGFORD IN LATE SPRINT
Langford was 1 down on the ninth, and as they started back Heintzman slashed his drive into the rocks, while Langford drove straight. Their next stroke brought them both up to the edge of the green. Heintzman ran up dead and aymed Langford. Langford gave him the putt and ran up dead, leaving the hole.

On the tenth both holed their drives, and then Langford won a little over the green, while Heintzman chipped out short, while Langford ran up dead and won the hole.

LAST TWO HOLES HALVED
The next hole Langford was short into the bunker and Heintzman went over into the bunker and took two to get out. Langford won the hole and went up for the first time.

Heintzman drove into the rough on the twelfth, while Langford drove straight. Heintzman got out short, while Langford played over the bunker.

On the fourteenth green Heintzman missed his putt and Langford was 2 up. The next two holes were halved.

KEARNS GETS UNEASY; ON WAY EAST

NEW YORK — Jack Kearns, manager of Jack Dempsey, is scurrying eastward anxious to dip his ear in the controversy raging over the proposed half million dollar Dempsey-Carpenter jumble for weeks.

Kearns sent word to Richard Saturday that he will be here Monday and when he arrives there is likely to be another review of the entire situation and a general shuffling with a new deck.

Richard announced that nothing would be done in regard to the Montreal proposition until he had seen Kearns.

FAVORS MONTREAL
"I think the offer made by the Montreal interests is made in good faith and that Montreal is anxious to have the bout, but I prefer deferring my reply until I have seen Kearns and studied the offer more closely," said Richard today.

"Mr. Graham, who represented the Canadians, impressed me very much."

Benny Leonard's next row will be with his old sidekick, Joe Walling, at New Orleans on Feb. 25. Despite the fact that Bannah knocked the westerner the length of the field in the last engagement, the stockyards kid still entertains the belief he will do better with Benjamin the next time out.

The fact that Leonard has consented to take on Walling would indicate he has abandoned his proposed trip to Europe.

MAROON TEAM TO TACKLE MICHIGAN

CHICAGO — The University of Chicago basketball team will resume its battle to stick in the tight game Big Ten race tonight in a game on the home floor with the University of Michigan. A win will move the Maroons up to second place, one game behind the winner of the Purdue-Indiana fracas at Lafayette.

Michigan entered its fourth year of Big Ten basketball with promises of a contending team for the first time in its history, but a wretched start put the Wolverines out of the running before the other teams were warmed up.

IN GOOD SHAPE
Chicago, after a disheartening defeat at Illinois, has lost all of its overconfidence, and the Maroons are in the pink of condition.

A big advance sale of tickets assures a capacity crowd for Brillet sym tonight. At previous games late arrivals have interfered with the players on the sidelines, and beginning tonight, no spectators will be seated during the first half. The loss up is at 8 o'clock.

ST. MARYS TRIMMED IN FINALS; ONE PLAYER HURT

Rockford high school won the annual Spencerville basketball tournament last night, when they trimmed St. Marys Hi in the finals after defeating St. Johns Hi of Delphos in the morning, 36 to 30 and Gomer in the afternoon by the score of 28 to 19.

Spencerville Hi was eliminated from the tourney in the first game in the morning by St. Marys, with a score of 15 to 13.

It is pointed out by fans who attended the tourney that Coach Van Natta took Lloyd Miller and Lester Pliard, two regular players, from the game when Spencerville was only leading by a margin of four points to which fact they generally contribute.

It is believed by Spencerville Hi followers that their team would have easily won the cup had it not been for this, as they are confident they could have defeated Rockford when they would have met this team in the finals.

BILL COOK INJURED
Bill Cook, of Rockford, was seriously injured in the final game against St. Marys. He was knocked unconscious and remained in a state of coma for nearly half an hour when it was decided to rush him to the hospital at Van Wert.

Saturday morning he was reported improved.

From early morning hours the Armory at Spencerville was packed with anxious rooters. Schools there were dismissed and hundreds of students accompanied their respective quints to the tournament.

Other scores of the day were: Gomer 44; Mendon 6 Ohio City 13; St. Marys 53. Rockford 23; Gomer 19.

IT'S GOOD FOR CHILDREN
Mr. C. E. Schwab, 1367 E. 13th St., Canton, Ohio, writes: "We use Volney's Honey and Tar for coughs and find it one of the best remedies on the market. It is especially good for children's coughs, as it does not contain any drug that is harmful. Serious sickness often follows a lingering cold. Hard coughing racks a child's body and disturbs strength-giving sleep, and the poison which enters the system in this way cannot be washed off. Take Volney's in time."

CLERK WHO REFUSED VACATION
CONFESSES TO THEFT OF FUNDS

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — (Special) — Alex V. Smith, assistant cashier of the First National bank, refused to take a vacation for 11 years. This so impressed his superiors in the bank that they raised his pay at their January meeting.

Two days later an auditor discovered that Smith had not reported a collection he had made. When confronted with the discovery he broke down and confessed that for years he had been holding out money on collections. His method was to hold them back a day or two and then pay them with money held out on later collections.

"Here's what I am short," Smith said, handing the bank officials a tabulated statement from his adding machine. It was $66,001.67. Auditors went to work and found that the total was correct. "You are protected by bond; let me go and jump into the Mississippi river," Smith pleaded with the men who had trusted him for years.

RELATIVES WOULD REFUND MONEY

Instead they sent him to a hospital to recover from a breakdown caused by the strain and the use of stimulants to keep his nerve up. Smith's relatives offered to make the amount good on promise that there would be no prosecution, but he was told that neither the bank nor the bonding company could give this assurance without having themselves liable to prosecution for compounding a felony.

When Smith learned this he said: "Don't waste any money on me; let me go to the Atlanta penitentiary. I may be a thief, but I am not a coward. I'll face the music."

Smith says he took the first misstep when a customer paid a note after banking hours. He answered that Smith kept the money until the next day. That night Smith spent it and started the system by which he finally kept back large sums.

"KNEW IT WOULD COME"

"I knew it couldn't go on forever. Several times I started to make a clean breast of it, but my courage always failed me," Smith said as he lay on his hospital bed, propped up by pillows and smoking a cigarette. "It was just like a stone rolling down the hill, the further it got, the faster it got. I knew the day of reckoning would come some day and I dreaded it. I couldn't sleep at night unless I drank whiskey and I consumed large quantities of it."

Smith has a wife and three children. Other bank employees, on being told of his confession, and some of them hinted that he was living beyond his salary, but the bank officials had such implicit confidence in the man who never took a vacation that they refused to have any suspicions.

Alex V. Smith.

Philadelphia Merchants
Have Proved Value of
Saturday Evening Advertising

A Comparison of Recent Issues of The Philadelphia Bulletin With Those of a Year Ago Shows That the Saturday Evening Advertising Idea Has Made Great Progress.

Just a year ago, in an article which attracted much attention among advertisers and advertising men, The Advertising Age pointed out the increasing acceptance of the value of advertising in the Saturday issues of evening papers, which for a long time had been overlooked by national advertisers, as well as by the department stores.

The department stores found that space restrictions during the year 1919 limited the amount of space they could buy on other days of the week when there was an advertising rush, and so, like the man who first driven by hunger to eat an oyster, proceeded cautiously to try the effect of Saturday advertising. The result was, they promptly wanted more of it.

Looking over the analysis of The Bulletin's Saturday issues a year ago and comparing it with the most recent Saturday numbers a decided change is at once noted.

It is not that there is a great deal more lineage in the paper; there could not well be. The Bulletin has been compelled to limit its size to thirty-two pages, and as The Bulletin wasted no space before, it has not been able to increase its volume of advertising greatly.

The Big Advertisers Have Become Convinced

But the department store advertising stands out in the latest Saturday issues with noticeable distinctness. Strawbridge & Clothier started the experimentation by the Quaker City department stores; they have their page each Saturday. Snellenburg's experimented with a page just a year ago; they have continued it, as a token to the success of the policy. Lit Brothers had a page a year ago; now they have two. Gimbel's is represented by a page also; and in the latest issue, Blauner's and Frank & Seder. All of these great stores are using Saturday space to concentrate on their Saturday evening and Monday selling.

Yet the small ads, which The Bulletin features with wonderful effect, have not been crowded out; there is abundant evidence that the small shops and stores of Philadelphia are advertising to an extent paralleled in no other large city. On Saturdays The Bulletin prints an average of 235 local retail store advertisements. In addition, The Bulletin on Saturdays also carries an average of about 3,000 want ads. It might here be noted that The Philadelphia Bulletin is a very strong Want Ad medium and practically dominates this class of advertising six days in the week.

National advertising is noticeable with good sized display; and further than that, local merchants large and small link right up to it with their ads in such proximity to the manufacturer's announcements as to indicate that the value of co-operation between local and national advertising is understood by the retailers of Philadelphia, who regularly advertise in the The Bulletin.

The Philadelphia Bulletin has shown that advertisers should be no respecter of days, because the power of advertising is sufficient to equalize business for merchants and for publishers between the several days of the week; that when the volume of business is too large on one day and too slack on another, advertising will adjust it to the most economical basis. The Bulletin has proved it by bringing up Saturday advertising to the level of other days of the week, and demonstrating the absolute fidelity with which Monday's business follows it. It has also shown that the good effect of advertising is independent of the day of the week on which it appears, just so long as it has the co-operation of the retailer.
